

Client: Grace

Publication: Self Magazine

Date: November 2007

Circulation: 1,486,992

my true self

All-star lineup
Connie Britton of Friday Night Lights talks Texas, twins and tunes.
By Michele Shapiro

▲ The star's view on a recent trip to Greece to attend the wedding of friends. "Watching the sunset was our ritual. Always spectacular!"

▲ Britton wears the same blush, offscreen as she does on TV: Nars Orgasm.

▲ She carries Airborne to fight "a plane full of germs."

"I take after my mom—I like to throw everything into a huge bag." Her current fave: an oversize Chloé.

The Asian-studies major finds Chinese culture fascinating and deems the film In the Mood for Love "stunning." Rent it!

Catherine Malandrino, $595

Britton is a fan of the burgers at Grace in L.A. (She's an investor.)

Her favorite antislip yoga mat cover. "I've been a yogi for a long time."

Heels make your legs look so nice. But I walk a ton, so I've embraced flats and have a few pairs of Converse that are great."

Converse, $42

"My dad gave me an iPod full of old-school rock he introduced me to and that we are both into. Stuff by Bob Seger, Bruce Springsteen and Fleetwood Mac."

"I adore dresses because they're comfortable and make you look put together. And I love color! My style is feminine with flair."

164 Self.com November 2007

CLOCKWISE FROM TOP LEFT: NBC PHOTO/VIRGINIA SHERWOOD; COURTESY OF SUBJECT; THE NEAL PETERS COLLECTION; ANDREA WYNER.