Around the country and around the world—where to go now BY ANDREW KNOWLTON

6 NIGHTS IN L.A. What started as a simple gimmick to increase business on slower nights has mushroomed into a dining phenomenon. From Sunday through Friday, dozens of Los Angeles restaurants offer special themed menus. So mark your calendars.

4 Doughnut Shoppe Night GRACE

Here, the humble doughnut has its own special night and loyal following.

On Wednesdays pastry chef Robert Tarlow offers up eight kinds, including a classic powdered sugar and a tempting café au lait-filled version. (323-934-4400)
